

Patient Responsibility – Insurance Disclaimer

Insurance Disclaimer: “A quote of benefits and/or authorization does not guarantee payment or verify eligibility. Payment of benefits are subject to all terms, conditions, limitations, and exclusions of the member’s contract at the time of service.”

Insurance Liability for Payment: Your health insurance company will only pay for services that it determines to be “reasonable and necessary.” Every effort will be made by this office to have all services and procedures preauthorized by your health insurance company, when applicable. If your health insurance company determines that a particular service is not reasonable and necessary, or that a particular service is not covered under the plan, your insurer will deny payment for that service. We suggest to all patients that they contact their insurance to confirm that these services are covered.

Under this arrangement, you are responsible for paying your co-pay, any non-covered portions, and any deductible you have yet to cover. In addition, if your insurance company does not pay for our services, you agree to pay for the services provided in our office.

Beneficiary Agreement: I understand that my health insurance company may deny payment for the services identified above, for the reasons stated. If my health insurance company denies payment, I agree to be personally and fully responsible for payment. I also understand that if my health insurance company does not make payment for the services, I will be responsible for any co-payment, deductible, or coinsurance that applies.
